Severe Snowfall Not Expected In Victoria, However

Temperature Drops to Fourteen Above Zero, New Low for This Winter and Four Inches of Snow on Ground at Noon; Mainland and Interior Suffer in Cold Wave While Prairie Temperatures Reach Forty Below Zero Mark

With the mercury down to nine-teen degrees at noon and snow still falling, Victoria is in for a strenuous cold snap according to F. Napier Denison, superintendent at Gonzales Meteorological Observatory. Fears that the city would be snowed in during the next few days were set at rest, however, by Mr. Denison, who predicted only a mild snowfall, although, he said, the temperature would probably take another plunge downward this evening.

Up to noon four inches of snow had fallen in the lower levels since last night, while the lowest temperature recorded was fourteen degrees, at 5 o'clock this morning. This is the lowest point the mercury has fallen this winter.

STORM MOVING

The state of Victoria weather during the next few days depends to a great extent upon a sea storm now centred off the Washington state coast, Mr. Denison added. Causing an area of low pressure, this storm has drawn cold weather from the Yukon territory and the coast as far south as Portland has felt the effects. This storm is now moving slowly southward and the probability is it will continue down to California with the result that Victoria weather will be milder.

On the mainland and eastward to the prairies the present cold wave has been felt decidedly, intensely cold weather prevailing.

COLD ON MAINLAND

While Victoria suffered a low temperature of fifteen or eighteen degrees of frost, the mercury dropped to twelve in Vancouver, while in Kamloops it was down to eighteen below zero, and in Prince Rupert the thermometer stood at eight degrees above.

The prairies are meanwhile suffering in sub-zero weather generally, with temperatures ranging from forty-four degrees below at Calgary and forty below at Swift Current to twenty and thirty below in Manitoba.

The United States, eastward to New York, is also snow and ice-bound under zero temperatures.

Canada-U. S. Hydro Plan to Be Negotiated

New York Times Predicts St. Lawrence Waterways Discussion at Early Date

New York, Jan. 28.—The New York Times to-day said:

"Reports from Washington that the Senate foreign relations committee will take up, probably on Wednesday, a treaty between the United States and Canada, which would permit diversion of 20,000 additional cubic feet of water a second for power production at Niagara Falls between October 1 and April 1 of each year, one-half to be diverted within the State of New York and one-half within the Province of Ontario, were interpreted in utility circles here to mean that early negotiations between the United States and Canada for hydro-electric development of the St. Lawrence River also are to be expected."

"The matter of St. Lawrence development is expected to come up directly after Mr. Hoover's inauguration as President of the United States, when a committee to negotiate a treaty is likely to be appointed."

J. P. Patenaude Dies At Williams Lake, B.C.

B. C. UNION ASK CHANGED LEGISLATION

Public Utilities Commission and School Aid Asked By B.C. Municipalities

Hunter Combination Ballot Is Recommended to Speed Up Elections

A list of thirty-three points which the Union of B.C. Municipalities will ask leave to take up with various committees of the Legislature has been prepared and shows legislative changes asked in respect to a large number of matters of municipal concern. The creation of a public utilities commission and greater help with school costs are the major issues of the case to be presented.

Prominence in the list is given to the combination ballot plan, devised by M. F. Hunter, City Clerk of Victoria, and which has been approved by the union as an improved and less costly method of taking municipal polls. The Hunter ballot would substitute a set of four ballots for the four separate, colored ballots formerly used. It is claimed for the plan that it would speed up election returns and reduce costs by eliminating the time now used in sorting. The voter would draw one set of ballots, attached in a file and complete voting in one operation.

CHANGES SOUGHT

The union is also asking control of the licensing of fox farms in regard to the choice of sites; a clearer definition of the duties of returning officers in the use of casting votes; reduced license fees for ambulances, road repair trucks, and similar public vehicles; elimination of the gasoline tax paid by municipalities; definition of improvement in respect to oil tanks and other works, for assessment purposes; tighter property qualification laws for municipal candidates; reduction of tax penalties for non-payment of rates; a clearer definition of compulsory advertising money by-laws, and a number of other points.

SOUTH AFRICA RATIFIES PACT

Chamberlain Speaks of Prospective Action By Other Dominions on Kellogg Treaty

London, Jan. 28.—The House of Commons today ratified the Kellogg Treaty for the Renunciation of War.

Mr. Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons the British Government proposes to deposit its ratification of the Treaty for the Renunciation of War as soon as the Governments of the Dominions were in a position to do likewise.

The House also ratified the Kellogg Treaty for the Renunciation of War as soon as the Governments of the Dominions were in a position to do likewise.

RETAIL LUMBERMEN OF WESTERN CANADA MEETING IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Jan. 28.—The need of more co-operation and the necessity of knowing more of each other's problems were stressed by Roy G. Roberts of Winnipeg, president of the Western Canada Retail Lumbermen's Association, at the opening session of that body's annual convention here this forenoon.

In a general review of the lumber business Mr. Roberts stated all branches were interdependent.

"We can never solve our problems by working in our own little corner without any reference to the other branches of the industry," he declared.

Mr. Roberts criticized some prairie dealers for their manner of doing business and emphasized the fact that the present organization had been brought into being in order to better that condition.

New York, Jan. 28.—Commander R. E. Byrd, in a flight over King Edward VII Land yesterday, discovered a new island and fourteen peaks, according to a radio message from the Byrd South Pole Expedition copyrighted by The New York Times and The St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

FITZSIMMONS LEGISLATION IS PROTESTED

Bill Validating Kaslo Member's Election to Meet Strong Opposition

When Government legislation legalizing the election of Capt. James Fitzsimmons, Conservative, of Kaslo-Slocan, comes up in the Legislature, it will be met with the concerted attack of the Opposition, it was learned at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

The bill will be attacked on the ground that it opens up highly dangerous possibilities by validating an election which the Government apparently considers illegal. Capt. Fitzsimmons, it is explained, held a ferry contract from the Government just before being nominated, and while he assigned his interests to a company, no provision for such assignments exists in provincial legislation. On this account, the Government proposes to clear away all doubt about the legality of the election by the passage of a blanket bill declaring it in order.

MONTREAL LOSES LEADING FIGURE

Death of Chief Justice J. E. Martin of Superior Court Is Widely Regretted

Montreal, Jan. 28.—Arrangements are being made here to-day for the funeral of the late Acting Chief Justice John Edmund Martin, of the Quebec Superior Court in the District of Montreal. The death of the Chief Justice occurred yesterday afternoon at his residence in Westmount.

He had been in ill-health since 1927, but there were intervals during which he could attend to his duties. He had been confined to his bed only a few days before his death.

Born in Sheffield in the Eastern Townships, in September, 1859, he spent all his life in Quebec province. He was president of the Canadian Bar Association in 1927, but was prevented by illness from attending the 1928 convention at Regina.

Pilot Near Death After Plane Crash

Glendale, Calif., Jan. 28.—Walter L. Stine, a student pilot for the Lockheed Aircraft Company, probably was fatally injured when he crashed his plane in making a forced landing here yesterday.

Witnesses of the crash told the police Stine was able to crawl from beneath his wrecked plane, but he collapsed after being taken to a hospital, where it was stated he was found to have a compound fracture of the skull.

Pennefather Death Held Accidental

In Rider Jury Suggests No Riding Three in Front Seat

Manslaughter Charge Against Driver to Proceed

Thomas Pennefather of Cowichan Lake who died following an auto crash on Signal Hill, Esquimalt Road, on January 10, came to his death accidentally, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury, which concluded its sitting this morning. A rider "that something be done to stop three people riding in the front seat of an automobile" was added by the jury.

Coroner E. C. Hart pointed out to the jurors that there was no law of this kind in British Columbia, although there was such a statute in the State of Washington. Stuart Henderson, counsel for James Davis, the driver of the car, suggested that a law of this nature should be made dependent upon the size of the driving seat.

The inquest which concluded this morning was adjourned from January 14. Charles McHardy and Mrs. Lucy Tamburri, two occupants of the car who went to hospital following the crash were heard, and Chief of Police John Acreman gave evidence regarding the state of the car after it had hit a telephone pole on Esquimalt Road.

"The announcement," the consulate said, "has been officially notified that former King Amanulla, at the earnest request of the people of Kandahar, Farah, Herat, Mazar, Lahirif, Maimana and Kabul, and having in view the integrity of the nation, has accepted the reins of government in the kingdom again."

Great national activity has started in the centres named and Kandahar is serving as headquarters. Hazara, Wardak and other places in southern Afghanistan have expressed their continued loyalty to Amanulla.

Man and Wife Victims of Fire

Aged Couple Lose Lives When Home at Lake Winnipegosis Is Burned

Winnipeg, Jan. 28.—At Duck Bay, Manitoba, on the shore of Lake Winnipegosis, a husband and wife were burned to death in their little home, according to a special dispatch from Winnipegosis.

The victims of the double tragedy were Mr. and Mrs. Lamerand, aged settlers who kept a stopping place at the northern settlement.

Flames from the burning building early Saturday morning roused neighbors from their sleep and they rushed to the assistance of the couple. Before aid was possible, however, the flames must have claimed their victims. The would-be rescuers stood helpless as the flames, fanned by a wind, consumed the wooden buildings.

Steveston Japanese Accidentally Killed While Hunting Ducks

Vancouver, Jan. 28.—A shot from a gun in the hands of U. Kimura, nineteen, intended for a duck which was winging over the south arm of the Fraser River near Steveston on Sunday landed in the head of his companion, F. Otani, twenty, killing him instantly, according to reports to police.

The duck shooting party, which included two other Japanese youths, at residents of Steveston, had landed two miles south of that town on the river bank before the accident occurred.

Otani, according to Kimura, slipped and fell backward just as the shot was fired.

Kimura, placed under arrest, is being held in the Okallali jail.

Prices of Beef Cattle At Peak

Agricultural Bureau Says Other Foods May Supplant Fresh Meat in U.S.

Washington, Jan. 28 (By Francis G. Aldham, Staff Writer of the Canadian Press).—A warning that the prices of beef cattle have reached their peak and that fresh meat may be supplanted in the food markets of this country by vegetables and dairy products, predicts that competition from Canadian and other countries will weaken the world market for export grain, a hint that the United States Government expects a decline in national prosperity within twelve months—all these are contained in the "Agricultural Outlook for 1929," a publication prepared by the staff of the bureau of agricultural economics, assisted by representatives of agricultural colleges and extension services.

The report predicts that in spite of continued unemployment there will be no significant decrease in the purchasing power for agricultural products in Great Britain next year.

U.S. Coastguard Cutters Hurrying to Rescue British Ss. Silver Maple Learn Steering Gear in Operation Again as Result of Crew's Work; Tug Goes Out After Ss. Cape Vado; Trawler Week Overdue

Aboard U.S. Coastguard Cutter Tampa, Jan. 28.—Indications that the crew of the disabled British steamship Silver Maple, in the Atlantic, southeast of Newfoundland, had been able to make repairs to the vessel's steering gear was received to-day in the first radio message received from the vessel by the Tampa.

TRAWLER WEEK OVERDUE

New York, Jan. 28.—Two United States coastguard cutters were racing to the aid of a ship in distress 700 miles east of Boston to-day and a tug was seeking another disabled ship between Bermuda and the Azores. Meanwhile hope faded for the safety of the steam trawler Senn, a week overdue at Cronan, Conn., from the George Banks.

Fighting their way through snow squalls and a strong west-northwest wind which sometimes blew a full gale, the cutters Tampa and Mojave were seeking the British freighter Silver Maple in answer to her SOS calls, sent out Saturday, after hearing she was helpless with disabled steering gear. The Mojave, sixty miles ahead of the Tampa, was expected to reach the position of the distressed ship about one o'clock to-morrow.

CANADA EMPLOYMENT FIGURES AT JANUARY 1 BEST SINCE 1920

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—As is the rule at the beginning of the year, employment in Canada on January 1, 1929, showed a pronounced curtailment. Returns from 7,556 firms recorded 819,700 employees at the beginning of January as compared with 983,698 on December 1, a decrease of approximately 65,000 persons. Employment, however, was more active than at the commencement of any other year since 1926. In the prairie provinces, 862 employers reported 131,329 workers, a decline of 9,570 as compared with December 1. In British Columbia, 662 firms reported 72,232 employees as against 82,343 the preceding month.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday was "Truth."

Among the Bible texts included in the lesson-sermon was the following from II Timothy III, 16, 17: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

The lesson-sermon also included the reading of citations from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being as follows: "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before truth can be understood. This sense is assimilated only as we are honest, unselfish, loving, and meek. In the soil of an honest and good heart the seed must be sown; else it beareth not much fruit, for the selfish element in human nature uproots it." (Page 272).

Nanaimo Places Hospital Board Back in Office

Nanaimo, Jan. 28.—The annual meeting of the Nanaimo Hospital Association was held on Thursday evening in the Canadian Legion Hall. George S. Pearson, president, was in the chair.

The balance sheet, showing the assets and liabilities of the hospital, was read and on motion of Dr. Brown, seconded by Mr. McRae, it was accepted.

The by-laws were amended to give the Western Fuel Employees' Hospital Association five members on the board of directors.

Assumption and management of the Nanaimo city and district treatment fund, heretofore operated by the W.F.E.H. Association, was approved.

The retiring board of directors was unanimously re-elected, the personnel being Messrs. Pearson, Cowman, McKenzie, Wilson and Leighton.

President Pearson thanked the members and stressed the work of the board as a unit.

Sensor, Planta and Dr. Brown moved and seconded that a committee be appointed to raise approximately $8,500, which committee will be appointed later.

Sensor Planta also moved and Dr. Hall seconded that the thanks of the association be given to President George Pearson and the directors. The motion carried with applause.

call another election in Kalo-Slocan and allow Capt. Fitzsimmons to seek election again. In this way the Government would avoid the danger of establishing a precedent under which any election could be violated. In the present case, of course, there is no suggestion of improper conduct on the part of anyone, but under a bill similar to that now before the members, the House could legalize any election no matter how corrupt.

In addition, it is thought the House may have no power to pass the new legislation, and that it may be thrown out as ultra vires. The consequences of this would be serious, as all the proceedings of the present session might be interpreted by the courts as ineffective should a member not properly elected vote on them. For the sake of the business of the session as well as for the advantage of Capt. Fitzsimmons the Government will be urged not to go ahead with its legislation.

SIX KILLED IN THREE CRASHES ON RAIL LINES

FREIGHT HITS FREIGHT
Revelstoke, Jan. 28.—Alfred Abrahamson, twenty-four, and Orville Thompson, twenty-five, C.P.R. trainmen of this city, were killed last evening at Laureia when two C.P.R. freight trains crashed. Two sections of No. 1 westbound passenger train were delayed until after midnight as a result of the wreck. Laureia is eighteen miles east of here.

Abrahamson a native of Revelstoke, was the son of O. W. Abrahamson, ex-mayor of this city and well-known local old-timer. He was an only son.

The parents of the late O. Thompson reside in Seattle, while he leaves a sister, Mrs. T. Dempsey, living here.

The engine crews on both trains jumped to safety before the trains crashed.

The accident was caused by a westbound train running into an eastbound train standing still on the main track. It is stated the engineer on the westbound train was proceeding on the belief that the other train was lying on a switch waiting for him to pass.

Six cars were smashed in the collision, the main line traffic was blocked for about seven hours.

No. 1 train due in Vancouver at 8 a.m. is not scheduled to reach there today until 5 p.m. The train is traveling in two sections.

CRASH IN ALBERTA
Calgary, Jan. 28.—Two men were killed and a third was seriously injured in a crash between two freight trains at Airdrie on the C.P.R. Calgary-Edmonton line early yesterday morning.

Those who lost their lives were H. Goodman, conductor, and S. A. Beldon, trainman, both of Calgary.

Trainman H. S. Mowat, also of Calgary, lies seriously injured in a hospital.

Goodman, Beldon and Mowat were traveling deadhead to Red Deer. They were in the second caboose of a freight which was standing at Airdrie while the engine took water, when a following freight crashed into the standing train and wrecked. Goodman and Beldon, it is believed, were killed in their sleep.

Railway officials are investigating to determine the cause of the accident.

WILL HOLD INQUEST

An inquest to be held by Coroner T. A. Wright, will be opened this evening.

Nothing could be done for Goodman and Beldon. The battered bodies, when picked up from the wreckage of the caboose, offered clear evidence their deaths had been instantaneous.

Mowat suffered a fracture of a shoulder blade, a long scalp wound, general bruises and severe shock. It is reported at hospital that Mowat's condition is favorable.

COWBOYS SAVE LIFE OF GIRL

Carry Her Through Blizzard in Central Idaho and Enable Surgeon to Operate

Seattle, Jan. 28.—As the temperatures fell lower and the snow piled higher in the Pacific Northwest to-day, more tales of suffering and heroism were told.

In Central Idaho, where trains are the only means of transportation, cowboys drove all available horses in a herd ahead of them as an emergency snowplough and carried an eleven-year-old girl thirty miles through a blizzard to a hospital. The child, Narcie Aramane, the daughter of a stockman near Cottonwood, was operated upon for acute appendicitis and was reported recovering rapidly. To the north, workmen with shovels rescued three trucks and four automobiles which were snow-bound while attempting to follow a rotary snowplough into Lewiston. The wind blew so hard the road closed in the wake of the plough before the caravan could pass.

Most of the small towns and villages of Idaho which lacked railroad communication were isolated by the heavy snow.

Eastern Washington and Oregon were little better off, with ploughs and crews at work continuously to keep the more traveled roads open. However, only two main highways out of Spokane were entirely blocked.

Falling temperatures in Western Washington and Oregon were checked, at least momentarily, when snow, which had fallen intermittently, came down in earnest last night.

GOAT MEN TELL OF SUCCESSES

Twelfth Annual Meeting of B.C. Association Is Held in Vancouver

Vancouver, Jan. 28.—Addressing the twelfth annual meeting of the British Columbia Goat Breeders' Association, held in Vancouver on Saturday evening, Alex Lamb, retiring president, congratulated the members on the conclusion of another successful year.

While it had not been possible, owing to lack of a convention and no prize list at Calgary, to ship a carload of goats to the prairies last year, a vigorous advertising campaign had been carried on through the newspapers and by radio. As a result, members had made many sales in the prairie provinces and in Ontario. At the beginning of 1928, a shipment of four Saanen goats had been sent to Colombia, South America. Recently, two Saanen bucks had been shipped to the Government of New South Wales, Australia, and another to Alaska, and prospects were encouraging for further sales.

VICTORIA WINS

For the first time an entry had been made at the Pacific International Exhibition at Portland, the goats being from the Tyler and Burton ranches at Victoria. The result had been a championship and a long list of firsts and other prizes won in strong competition.

Two successful kid shows had been held at Victoria and New Westminster. The result had been a championship and a long list of firsts and other prizes won in strong competition.

OFFICERS ELECTED
The election of officers resulted as follows: President, H. Monson, Burnaby; Vice-president, Frank B. Mon-teith, North Vancouver; Secretary, treasurer, George Palmer, Victoria; auditor, H. C. Hooper, Victoria.

The directors include E. H. Burton, of Victoria, and S. L. Jones, of Victoria.

B.C. UNION ASKS CHANGED LEGISLATION

The union also asks the repeal of the $1 per day charge for the upkeep of prisoners in provincial jails; revision of the cost of road construction between the Province and the municipalities; provision for the destruction of noxious weeds along highways; and a number of changes in various acts relating with subdivision registration, land titles, etc.

LIGHTEN SCHOOL COSTS
The union has prepared a determined case in regard to school costs; asking that the Province lighten the burden of education costs either by taking over the schools, or else by increasing the basis of taxation so that greater aid may be given to the municipalities. Pointing out that teachers' salaries have risen fifty per cent in some places in ten years, the union asks an increase grant under this head.

WANT COMMISSION
Provision for a public utilities commission is also sought, with effective powers to control rates, capitalization and contracts. The exact scope of the proposed utilities commission is not defined, but general powers are asked to control all rates that may apply, in the best interests of the public at large.

Altogether the union has a full programme to lay before committees of the House, on behalf of the sixty-two municipalities of the Province.

way House a second time, they had proceeded towards Old Esquimalt.

"We were going up the hill and seemed to hit something—like street car tracks. Then we seemed to plough through some boulders. I don't remember anything then until I came to in a house nearby," said Mr. McHardy who was sitting in the left rear seat of the car.

NOT VERY FAST
"We did not seem to be going very fast," he added, "although I would not make any definite statement regarding the speed of the car prior to the crash."

Mrs. Tamburri corroborated the evidence of McHardy regarding the course of the car before the crash.

"There was another car going in the opposite direction and our car had to get over near the car tracks. The ground was rough there and then something went wrong—I don't know if it was the car or what it was. It didn't get back onto the roadway any-how and after awaying a bit it hit the pole."

Mrs. Tamburri also testified the car

New Recipe for Coloring Gray Hair

By LOIS PAGE

One of the questions most frequently asked me is: "What shall I do for my graying hair?" Unhesitatingly I recommend that tried and proven recipe sage tea and sulphur. A brew of common garden sage with sulphur and alcohol added, makes the best hair restorer I know of.

You can either prepare the mixture yourself at home, or as most people prefer to do, buy it already prepared and ready to use. Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur is the name of the ready-to-use preparation and, since all druggists sell it at 75c a bottle, there is really no need of going to the bother of making it yourself.

You simply moisten a comb or soft brush with it, and draw it through the hair, one strand at a time. One application banishes the gray and one or two more completely restores your gray, faded or streaked hair to its original color. There is no hard, dyed look. The whole effect is one of perfect naturalness. Thousands of men and women use this preparation with no one suspecting it.

did not seem to be going very fast. CAR IN NEUTRAL

The jury deliberated only ten minutes, once returning to here from Chief Acreman that the car was found in neutral gear after the accident.

In giving his charge to the jury, Coroner Hart stated there was little in the evidence to comment upon. The question of liquor did not concern the case, he added, as a crime was not affected by whether a man had a few drinks or not.

"If you think this car was operated in a grossly careless manner so as to bring the lives of subjects of His Majesty into danger then it is your duty to bring in an indictment," he said. "If not, then you must bring in a verdict of death by misadventure."

HEARING CONTINUES
The preliminary hearing of James

Davis on a charge of manslaughter, arising out of the death of Mr. Pennefather, will be continued this afternoon in Esquimalt Police Court. Mr. McHardy and James Cook, alleged to have lent his driver's license to Davis, will be the witnesses put in the stand by the prosecution.

Stuart Henderson appears for the defence and G. H. Sedger for the prosecution.

When Buying Was One Long Experiment

"I'll try a pound of this," said your grandmother, "if you are sure it's fresh."

That was some time in the second hour of her morning search for groceries. She went from one open barrel or box to the next, along an unappetizing row of crackers, teas, cereals, dried fruits, lard and sugar—all in bulk. She shooed the flies away, looked at, touched and tasted each article suspiciously, and finally decided to buy or not to buy, as her judgment directed. She couldn't trust a servant to do it. It was a day's work in itself.

To-day, in two minutes, you give the grocer your order. You know that everything you get will be fresh, pure, attractively and cleanly packed. Why? Because you ask for advertised brands.

Advertising has taken hours of hard labor out of every housewife's day, and lines of worry off her forehead. It has made the morning's marketing a matter of certainty instead of guesswork.

Do ALL of your buying this easier way—read the advertisements!

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 28.—Sir William Clark, British High Commissioner in Canada, speaking before the Hamilton Canadian Club Saturday, stated Great Britain faced the future with courage and was not "down and out."

A return of prosperity was promised in the reorganization of industry and the better understanding between capital and labor, the speaker said. Con-

Toronto Police Take Loot
From Lads Eleven to Fourteen Years Old

Toronto, Jan. 28.—A youthful "crime club" and a clubhouse full of stolen articles were revealed to the Toronto police following the arrest of a lad of eleven years here Saturday.

The boy was arrested as he attempted to steal some cakes from a baker's cart. He explained to a policeman that he wished to become a member of a club and that the qualification was that he must prove his ability to steal. The policeman acted promptly, discovered the clubhouse in the rear of a residence and arrested ten boys ranging in age from eleven to fourteen. A large quantity of loot, varying from milk tickets to a thirty-five-pound pail of candy, was recovered.

Wrong Gives Advice To Canadian Writers

Toronto, Jan. 28.—If Canada is to produce a high form of literature the writers must cultivate imagination, must know their background and must understand the state of the society in which they live. Prof. G. M. Strong of the University of Toronto said in addressing the Canadian Literature Club here Saturday. Professor Strong said the Canadian field was wide open, with no great volume of literature already behind to frighten writers from further effort, but that Canadians must avoid what Lord Asquith once referred to as a "tranquil consciousness of effortless superiority."

SIX DROWNED IN POND IN ENGLAND

Lough, Lancashire, Jan. 28 (Canadian Press Cable).—Harry and George Brown, brothers, aged eight and thirteen years, and a married man named Watson were drowned yesterday when they broke through the ice on a pond near here. The drownings were the second tragedy within a week on the same pond as three schoolboys were drowned there last Wednesday.

Watson, who was skating, lost his life in an attempt to rescue the lads. The boys and their sister were sliding on the pond and it was the girl's screams that brought Watson to the scene. The girl, who was eleven years old, made shore safely.

Election Course Is Made Clear

London, Jan. 28 (Canadian Press Cable).—In view of the impending general election in Great Britain much political interest is attached to a statement made by Right Hon. Sir Herbert Samuel at a week-end meeting at New-castle. He said people of progressive minds who voted Conservative at the last general election might safely vote Liberal at the next, inasmuch as he and Right Hon. David Lloyd George, leader of the Liberal Party, had made it clear at the last Liberal Federation congress that the 1924 experiment would not be repeated and the Liberals would not use their influence to install and maintain in power a Socialist Government.

FOREIGN-BORN AND CITIZENSHIP

LAST MONTH'S ISSUE OF THE CANADIAN NATION, the official organ of the Association of Canadian Clubs, contains a verbatim report of the address which Mr. E. J. Tarr, K.C., LL.D., an ex-president of the organization, delivered at Calgary some time ago, and in it are to be found some new points of view on the immigration question, particularly as they apply to the foreign-born. Mr. Tarr speculates on the character of the Canada of the future, not the individual character, but the "character of that entity which we call the Canadian Nation." He relates how a French-Canadian declared to him about a year ago that "somehow we don't feel quite at home when we leave Quebec; we feel that most English-speaking Canadians do not in their hearts accept us into full citizenship; they do not seem to think of us as real Canadians."

This confession of one of the Quebec men will appear strange to anybody who has even the slightest knowledge of Canadian history and the part which the people of the Ancient Province have played in the making of it. From this point Mr. Tarr proceeds to a study of the problem of the foreign-born migrant. He agrees that our national life and institutions must not be jeopardized by a flooding of Canada with undesirable material; and "to prevent this we all agree that it is highly desirable in the national interest that careful physical examinations and intelligence tests should be hurdles set up on the other side of the water which the prospective immigrant would have to be able to jump." But one of the things Mr. Tarr considers we as a Canadian people should bear in mind is that an attraction which must be felt by an immigrant is the prospect of a full and warm welcome into citizenship after a reasonable period of residence. "We do not always adopt an attitude towards our citizens of non-British forbears," he reminds us, "which makes them feel that they are really welcomed as citizens." Therefore, the period of residence is not now long enough, make it longer, but let us see to it that when we technically admit men and women into Canadian citizenship, we do it actually as well.

Mr. Tarr notes that much has been said and written about keeping Canada British. The idea in the minds of many of those using this and similar phrases has been that we should take care not to endanger our Canadian institutions by too large an influx of foreign population within a short time, not because of the inferiority of such races, but because of differences of background and conditions and language. There is general agreement with this point of view; but, as Mr. Tarr points out, unfortunately much of what has been written and said "has seemed to be the result of a sense of racial superiority, and has been interpreted, and very naturally interpreted, by Canadian citizens of non-British birth and Canadian-born citizens of non-British parents, as a reflection upon the races from which they spring." On this point Mr. Tarr concludes:

All classes of our citizens, of whatever racial antecedents, would gladly recognize the national wisdom of a reasonably balanced immigration policy, but surely we can grow to be big enough and broad enough not to base that policy on any feeling of racial superiority. If we have such a sense it is based mostly upon ignorance and conceit, and the overcoming of it will contribute enormously to national unity with a big by-product in terms of national character.

The eminent Canadian whom we have quoted obviously treats the immigration question as a matter of supreme moment to Canada as a whole. He is unimpressed by the stupidity of such political propaganda as seeks to blame this or that government for the slower movement of British peoples to this country. We all know that it would be foolhardy to bring all sorts and conditions of people to Canada and let them flounder. Most of these would drift into the cities and conditions soon would develop in the industrial centres which may be more easily imagined than described. The Dominion needs all the land workers it is able to get. Upon them the factory depends. But none should be admitted unless all the mental, physical and moral standards are adequately met.

QUEST OF THE SUPREME

IT IS BETTER TO DIE STRUGGLING for the supreme than to perish in the dust among the commonplace.

This was the maxim that guided the life of Emil Fuchs, world-famous sculptor and painter, who shot himself to death in his New York studio the other day.

Fuchs was suffering from an incurable disease. That, doubtless, was a strong motive for suicide. Few men can sit unmoved when death is approaching relentlessly. But it is fair to assume that he felt, also, that his life was at a dead end, and that the "dust of the commonplace" was beginning to settle about his studio. For a man with his philosophy that would be enough to make life unendurable.

Although we do not put it into words, most of us, no doubt, feel much the same way about it. To "struggle for the supreme"—to pack life with high moments, so that it glows like a stained cathedral window or flashes like a golden shield in the sunlight—is the goal we are all looking for. We resent sameness and routine; we know that we have the capacity for deep emotional and spiritual experience, and we hunt eagerly for the chance to exercise it.

But, ordinarily, we fail at it. In the beginning we get a hint of what life could be like. A brief experience, a fleeting mood, shows us a bright and shining land beyond the barriers of every-day existence. But the demands of bread and butter, and the necessity of doing what is expected of us, shut us out. We plod along, in the dust of the commonplace, and work up a good deal of pity for ourselves.

It is only the exceptional man or woman who can escape and make a life that is truly a "struggle for the supreme." The most of us have to make the best of the commonplace. And we do fairly well, too. We do the day's job, year after year, and we plod along from youth to middle age and from middle age to old age, without ever reaching that pit of despair that drives a man to suicide.

For we discover, as we get experience in living, that the commonplace can shield wonders. In the daily routine we see strange and noble things; men struggling against long odds to be decent and honorable, women fighting loneliness to make someone else's life easier, fathers and mothers sacrificing in silence for the sake of their children. The most uneventful life has a thousand loopholes through which may be seen courage, fidelity and kindness.

These things are little—yet they mean everything. They make the commonplace path a road of wonders, because they demonstrate that the world is not a mere confused turmoil devoid of hope or light, but a place that has love, unselfishness and a magnificent striving that cannot be defeated. And we know if these things exist, no matter in how small quantities, amid the dust of the commonplace, somewhere they are infinite and everlasting.

SHOULD STOP IT

IF THE "REBEL" DOUKHOBORS IN THE

Grand Forks district continue to defy the law, the Attorney-General should lose no time in taking the necessary steps for their deportation. Their defiance of authority and their peculiar way of showing their annoyance demand prompt action. The main body of the sect apparently is contented and complying with the laws of the province. The element which has challenged the police to battle is that wing which objects to the leadership and authority of Verigin.

There is no room in British Columbia for fanatics of this type. They may do a lot of damage in their "demonstrations." A year or so ago several schools were burned down, and while most of the cost of reconstructing them was levied on the Doukhobor community, the rest came out of the pockets of the taxpayers of the province. That sort of business has gone far enough. This is 1929; medieval practices and superstitions have no place in our modern scheme of things. The Government should make it plain that it will stand no more nonsense of this sort.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

TIPSTERS ON THE STOCK MARKET
The New York World

One of the unavoidable by-products of the big boom in stocks has been the emergence of a flock of market tipsters, who sell what they claim is "inside information" regarding the future course of the market or of particular groups of stocks. The hordes of new speculators, inexperienced and gullible, have been drawn into the market by the tales of easy riches, have supplied these parasites with a large clientele.

GERMAN PROPERTY
The Farmers' Sun (Toronto)

The Canadian Government seized, during the war, with ample justification of international law, a large amount of property here belonging to German citizens. Out of the gross sum, the Government has paid all claims of individual Canadians for damage done by Germany during the war, as, for example, for goods lost at sea, when English ships were torpedoed. There remains, in the hands of the public custodian, a sum of $15,000,000, which the Government must confiscate or return to the individual German owners. Clearly, the money ought to be returned to its owners. The hatreds of the world, of necessity, set about reconstruction and renewal of the intimacies of commerce and finance. In many instances, as in the cases of stocks registered in a German name, the property is in fact, or in civil law, in a Frenchman or other friend. It is, therefore, politic and expedient to give the money back.

THE FEW AND THE MANY
The Toronto Star

When great expenditures are being made in a country, everyone, says an exchange, has a chance to get a share. But for some the chance is abundant, while for others it is so skimpy that it can scarcely be called a chance at all.

Those who say that life as it is lived and business as it is conducted should be made more equitable, that there is no reason why conditions should not be improved, so that a few will not get far too much, while many get far too little, are often denounced as agitators and trouble makers. Those who profit by arrangements as they are and who would profit less under more equitable social conditions are a small minority of the whole population, but they are influential and they manage to carry with them the applause of the unreflecting multitude. Without that support many reforms would be easily accomplished. But more and more it is coming to be understood that the goal to be sought is the general welfare of the people at large.

A THOUGHT

I will overturn, overturn it; and I shall be no more until he come whose right it is; and I will give it to him.—Ezekiel xli 27.
Institutions may crumble and governments fall, but it is only that they may renew a better youth.—George Bancroft.

The bidding: South bids no-trump and all pass.

Deciding the play: West leads three of hearts which Declarer takes with Ace of hearts. A holdup is useless, for East holds four cards in hearts. How should Declarer play to make game?

The error: Declarer decides to establish the diamond suit and finesse Jack of diamonds which is won by East, game being sacrificed.

The correct method: To make game, Declarer must make five tricks in diamonds. After taking first trick with Ace of hearts, Declarer should play two of diamonds and overtake with King of diamonds on which Queen of diamonds may fall. If not, he should return to closed hand with a club, play three of diamonds and finesse Jack of diamonds unless the fall of the cards has given some clear indication of the location of Queen of diamonds, whereupon Declarer plays accordingly.

The principles: When holding a suit headed by Ace-King-Jack, avoid taking the finesse the first time that suit is played. Thereby you will capture the possible singleton Queen or help locate its position.

LEECH RIVER PARK PROPOSAL

Petition For Preservation
Drafted By Native Sons

A request that the Leech River area be set aside as a national park is made in a petition drafted by the Native Sons of British Columbia and forwarded to D. C. Coleman, C.P.R. vice-president and president of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, which controls the area.

The petition reads as follows: "It is respectfully requested that the Leech River area, Malahat district, Vancouver Island, enclosed in red line on the attached plan, be created into a public park.

"The area is rendered interesting by many pioneering memories of early settlement on Vancouver Island, and is of great natural beauty, eminently suitable and attractive for park purposes. It is probably the only area available for park purposes, and not valuable for any other purpose.

"We are certain that once the area is set aside for park purposes, it will be possible to undertake continuous work of improvement by co-operation of all the communities and associations interested so as to create a new and powerful magnet for tourist traffic which, in turn, will be of substantial benefit to your company.

"Trusting to your favorable consideration and co-operation," etc.

PENSIONERS AID MANY MEMBERS

Secure Recognition of Disability After Ten Years

The general meeting of the Canadian Pensioners of the Great War, was held on Friday night. Several new members joined the association. The pension committee reported that since the last meeting, held two weeks ago, five pension cards had been adjusted from Ottawa, one retroactive pension from date of discharge, two cases of increase pension, two cases of recognition of disability incurred on war service, and after ten years pension awarded.

New rules and bylaws were introduced and accepted. With the proposed women's auxiliary under consideration further progress of the branch is anticipated. The resolution on the establishment of a disabled ex-service council in Victoria, received the overwhelming support of the members, and the hope was expressed that all ex-service men's associations in the city would co-operate in its formation.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, February 18.

A meeting of war widows and wives of disabled ex-service men was held Saturday afternoon at the quarters of the Canadian pensioners' branch, 727 View Street. Fifty ladies were present. A brief address was given by the president, Mr. Craig, on the desirability of the formation of a ladies' auxiliary of the branch. An address was given by the secretary, A. J. Wilson, on pension matters, urgently emphasizing the necessity of all widows and wives of disabled ex-service men, organizing to protect their own interests. With much enthusiasm the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Morrison; first vice-president, Mrs. Murdoch; second vice-president, Mrs. Milliken; secretary, Mrs. Hay; treasurer, Mrs. Akhurst; directors, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Neve, Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. Wardie, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McPhail, Mrs. Owen Smith, Mrs. Wickham, Mrs. Pattullo, Mrs. Bevan and Mrs. Emiri.

The next general meeting of the auxiliary will be held on Friday, February 1, at 8 p.m. All war widows and wives of disabled ex-service men are urged to attend this meeting.

NANAIMO SCOTS HOLD BANQUET

Anniversary of Robert Burns
Observed With Songs and Speeches

Nanaimo, Jan. 28.—A concert, supper and dance was held on Friday evening in St. John's Hall as a tribute to the memory of Robert Burns. Three hundred covers were laid for the banquet, which was followed by song and story of the Old Land.

Preceding the supper Miss Jean Cameron, in Highland costume, carried the haggis around the room to a bagpipe accompaniment. Guests were welcomed by Mr. Lawrence Sampson, who presided. "Grace" from Burns, was ably said by Sergeant J. W. Thompson. Mrs. R. T. Wilson was accompanist and J. Shigson assisted in arrangement of the programme.

Mr. Joseph English gave the address to the haggis. It was followed by a toast to the King, and the National Anthem. Buster Mathews sang "Afton Water." Mrs. G. Muir gave interpretations of "Doon the Burn Dave Laid" and "There's a Land." William Carmichael reviewed the life of Burns, whom he declared to be the world's greatest poet, whose memory was revered by every land.

D. Borland responded to the toast "To the Motherland," and the gathering joined in heartily singing "Corn Rigs." Miss Jean Ferguson gave a rendition of "Comin' Through the Rye" and "The Thistle." Miss Jean Cameron danced the Highland Fling in costume.

In response to a toast, "The Land of Our Adoption," John Shaw entertained with comparisons of Canada and the Old Land, remarking that Canada is a new Scotland made for Scotsmen. J. Adams of Chelmsford sang "Ca' the Hives to the Knowes." W. Fulton responded humorously to a toast "To the Ladies."

Patching Scratches

If your wall paper gets scratched, carefully apply some moistened scrapings from the matching left-over paper. Use a sharp knife to scrape off the scraps. When dry the scratch will be covered.

Cubes of summer squash, par-boiled, are delicious baked in a casserole covered with hot tomato sauce, bread crumbs and a dash of butter.

LADY LUGARD, JOURNALIST, DIED SUNDAY

Was Head of London Times Colonial Department; In the Klondyke Gold Rush

London, Jan. 28.—The death of Lady Lugard, journalist and traveler, who until her marriage in 1902 to Frederick D. Lugard, the first Baron Lugard, was Flora Louisa Shaw, was announced yesterday. Lady Lugard was the daughter of the late General Shaw. She was formerly head of the colonial department of The London Times and undertook many commissions in distant parts of the world when stirring events were occurring. Thus she participated in the Klondyke gold rush, knew the late Cecil Rhodes during his exile, building in South Africa, was the only woman witness at the Jameson Raid inquiry, and saw the Kanaka labor question in the sugar industry of Queensland, Australia, studied out. Lady Lugard was a joint founder of the War Refugees Committee, and established the Lady Lugard hospital committee. Her publications include "Castle Blair" and "Hector," favorites with the last generation of writers and readers of the London Times. Her husband has had a distinguished career as a soldier and administrator, chiefly in Africa, and has been a member of the permanent mandates commission of the League of Nations since 1922. Their home is at Little Parkhurst, Manor Common, Surrey.

PIONEERS KEEP GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sedgman, Shelbourne St., Are Feted By Family and Friends

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Sedgman, pioneer residents of 2710 Shelbourne Street, Saanich, were feted by a large party of relatives and friends, on their golden wedding anniversary, on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. Sedgman were married at Helston, Cornwall, England, in 1879, and came to Victoria over seventeen years ago. Among many handsome gifts to the happy couple were a handsome fruit bowl and flower vase, the gifts respectively of the City Temple Church and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the same body. Mr. and Mrs. Sedgman sat down to the table with five daughters and two sons gathered for the family reunion. Among those present were Mrs. J. G. Noye of Seattle; Mrs. J. Pearce, Colwood; Mrs. A. Lewis, Victoria; Mrs. A. Lanbrick and Mrs. W. Watson, Saanich; all daughters; and W. P. Sedgman and A. Sedgman, their sons. After a happy reunion, in which Mr. and Mrs. Sedgman recalled many of their interesting experiences in the fifty years of their successful marital voyage, all present enjoyed an excellent programme of refreshments and music.

DAUGHTER FOR EX-MAHARAJAH

Former Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle Becomes Mother

Paris, Jan. 28.—Devi Holkar, wife of the former Maharajah of Indore, who was Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle, gave birth to a girl last Saturday. Both the baby and the mother are doing well. Only a few close friends knew of the event, although a report that the wife of the deposed Maharajah expected a child was circulated last November. The utmost secrecy prevailed at the birth, and all servants were forbidden to talk, but the news naturally got out and officials had to be let in on the secret to comply with the law regarding the declaration of births. The couple hoped the child would be a boy, but there was no lack of joy at the chateau and great relief at the good health of the mother and baby. For a long time it has been reported that ex-Maharajah, in conformity with religious practices, priests offer prayers for the expected child. There had been much speculation as to whether the ex-Maharajah's wife would go to England or to the American Hospital in Paris, but she preferred to stay in the quiet of her own home here, where she could be safely guarded from the outside world. The former Miss Miller has been living at Saint Germain-en-Laye, outside Paris, for months with her husband, Sir Lukoil Rao, former Maharajah of Indore. She was the former Maharajah were married last March; the Hindu ritual being performed at Baranaka, India.

Held Card Party—A very successful card drive and dance was held on Friday evening, in the Sons of England Hall, Broad Street, under the auspices of Primrose Lodge No. 33, Danforth, England. The convenor for the dance was Mrs. Joyce, and for the card drive Mrs. Skett. The Melodians supplied music for the dance.

No More Piles

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and snags can't do this—no internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it removes this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. MacFarlane Drug Co., Vancouver, Drug Co. and druggists everywhere sell of red running up its left side of the blouse and the sleeves.

Among the passengers on the American Mail liner President Taft which will sail for Europe on Tuesday, is the former President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, who is on his way to Europe on a tour of inspection.

James Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, 2945 Quadra Street, and second-year student of Victoria College, has been awarded the prize of $50 presented in each province of Canada by MacLean's Magazine to the student under seventeen whose essay on "What the Story of Canada's War Effort Has Taught Me," has been judged worthy of first place.

As to-day is the birthday of British Columbia's successful competitor, the prize has been awarded to the student under seventeen whose essay on "What the Story of Canada's War Effort Has Taught Me," has been judged worthy of first place.

In the province of Ontario there are two divisions with a total of ten prizes of $50 each, and each carrying an additional grant of $25 to the library of the college whose pupil is the fortunate winner, also there is a prize of $250, which carries a $100 grant.

James Gibson has also an outstanding record in oratory, and takes a very active interest in the drama, appearing recently as "Tudor, Tybbs Sonne," one of the shepherds in the Chester Mystery, which under the direction of Major L. Bullock-Webster, was the opening feature of a most delightful festival at the Empress Hotel.

Ask For Lifting Of Ban On Women Medical Students

London, Jan. 2 (Canadian Press Cable)—The ban on women medical students at hospitals associated with the University of London, which has been enforced for some years, should be lifted. This was the unanimous report of a committee which investigated the matter. The report recommends three types of clinical education, one for men only, one for women only, and one for both men and women.

married recently in Mexico City and sailed from San Francisco on their honeymoon trip. The daughter of the former president of Mexico is eighteen years of age and is considered to be the most beautiful woman in Mexico, having the dark eyes and features peculiar to her race. She was born in Mexico City. Her husband, who is twenty-two years of age, is the son of a prominent sugar planter in the State of Sinaloa.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at St. Barnabas Church between Constance Evelyn, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Chester Street, and Mr. Alexander H. ## JUNIOR W.A. BRANCHES IN FINE REPORTS

Columbia Diocesan Board Sees Playlet and Games By Girls of 24 Branches

In spite of the inclemency of the weather on Saturday afternoon, the Memorial Hall was well filled with members of the twenty-four junior branches of the Columbia W.A. The Diocesan president, Mrs. James Dickson, was in the chair.

Excellent reports from the branches were brought in, that from Courtenay being given by Mrs. Harvey, who was accorded a warm welcome, as was also Mrs. Cave from Chemainus. Mrs. Fessle of St. Columba, Strawberry Vale, was greatly missed, being unable to attend with her junior branch, Mrs. Norrish was in charge of the James Bay Branch, as they are at present lacking a superintendent. A leader is also needed for the junior branch at Ladysmith, Mrs. B. Chow reported.

A playlet entitled "A Visit From Our Mother" was given by members of St. John's Junior Branch, and showed that much painstaking work had gone into the preparation and production of the different parts. Nine plodes were illustrated in well-thought-out costumes and many senior members felt that they had learned much from the play.

St. Luke's Branch staged the W.A. game in costume giving the history of the W.A. from its inception in 1885 by Mrs. Roberta Tilton, who was represented in the costume of that day, through the later developments—educational, medical and evangelistic to the present day.

The junior superintendents of these branches deserve great credit for these interesting and instructive productions. Little Miss Evelyn Curtis of St. John's W.A. gave a recitation which was greatly enjoyed.

BANNERS PRESENTED—Banners were presented to St. John's Branch (city) for increased membership, also to St. Columba (country), St. Mary's, Oak Bay, and St. Alban's for their high marks in the missionary examination, senior group. Queen Margaret's School, Duncan, winning the banner for the second year for the junior group. Betty Cowdry got the highest marks in the senior examination, and May Taylor of Sandwick and Courtenay Branches, in an out-of-town branch, book prizes being presented to each by Mrs. Chow.

Rev. A. E. de L. Nunn, following a short address, called for three cheers for the much loved junior superintendent, which were very heartily given, Mrs. Chow expressing her pleasure and joy in the work.

Bridge Reigns As Greatest of All Pastimes

Has Gained Such a Popular
Hold Due to Both Men and Women Enjoying It

Favorite Form of Entertainment;
Extremely Active
During Winter Months

Bridge is now the premier pastime of the nation. Once the game of experts it is now the joy of the masses. Its devotees so far outnumber the supporters of other pastimes that comparisons are odious.

For a time the reign of bridge was threatened by the importation from China of mah jong but the ivory counters soon were swept from the tables by the linen cards. To-day bridge has a stronger hold on the public than at any time since its inception and all other games must pay homage to it.

A SOCIABLE WAY

Bridge has become so popular through the fact that men as well as women enjoy it. Women's bridge clubs have always been numerous and men have dealt a few hands when they had a little spare time at their clubs, but the rapid growth and appeal has undoubtedly come from the fact that husband and wife, or the sweethearts, have banded together and formed clubs, which meet on certain evenings in the week, and also through the fact that neighbors or friends can have a table at any time the spirit prompts them.

Bridge is a popular means of entertainment. The old-fashioned form of entertaining friends with guessing games and other amusing items worked a great task on the hostess. With bridge she can entertain her friends without great preparation and the majority of people prefer to sit in comfort and put their strategy, skill and knowledge of the game against their opponents, to the old-time guessing games and merry hustle.

TEACHERS EVERYWHERE

Bridge has reached the point in public esteem that the radio networks put on weekly bridge broadcasts and they are extremely popular. The newspapers recognize the importance of bridge by carrying special features on the game, either hints to players, problems or other forms that invigilate the interest of the readers. Bridge lecturers also find wide scope for their talks and always draw great crowds whenever they appear.

YEAR-ROUND PASTIME

Bridge at one time was reserved for the winter months, but now it rages right around the calendar. Any time four people get together—on steamboat or train, in a camp in the hills or a de luxe suite in a hotel, in a summer cottage, or in the home—they think of a hand of bridge.

Bridge is fascinating and is a source of much interest to the poor as well as the rich, and people of all ages.

Boston Bruins Maintain Their Winning Streak

Continue to Climb By 2-1 Win Over New York Rangers

Cooney Weiland's Goal Gives Second Place Club Victory Over Leaders of American Section of N.H.L.; Bruins Have Played Eleven Games Without Defeat; Positions of Teams Unchanged Following Five Week-end Games; Scream of Woman Spectator Mistaken for Whistle Causes Detroit's Defeat at Hands of Americans

Toronto, Jan. 28.—Four teams who won their games in the National Hockey League over the week-end to-day find themselves no further ahead for their victories. They are the four leading teams in the international section, and as all chalked up wins they retain the same relative standing as prevailed before.

Boston Bruins made the only advance in the United States section by defeating the world champion New York Rangers 2-1 and creeping up to within four points of the leaders. Ottawa was the only team in the international section to lose, but Detroit, Rangers, Pittsburgh and Chicago of the United States outposts were defeated. All inter-sectional games were won by international group teams. Toronto defeating Chicago 2-0, Montreal Maroons beating Pittsburgh 2-0 and New York Americans winning from Detroit 2-1. Montreal Canadiens crushed Ottawa 2-1 in the fifth game.

SHORE BREAKS DEADLOCK

Eddie Shore, burly Bruins defence star, broke a scoreless deadlock early in the third frame.

Cooney Weiland added another and then Bill Cook made the Rangers' score.

The scream of a woman spectator, which Dolson, Cougar goalie, mistook for the referee's whistle, proved the undoing of Detroit in their game with the Americans last night. Sheppard shot from a scramble in front of the goal and Dolson stepped aside thinking the whistle had blown. The tally was the Americans' second. Lewis lifted the puck into the net in the closing minutes for the Detroit score.

DELETED WIN

Maroons had not marked up a win in nine games before their victory over Pittsburgh Pirates Saturday.

If every game in Ottawa was a Canadian game there would be no talk of transferring the team to a United States city. Saturday night 6,000 Capital City fans turned out to see the Frenchmen beat the Senators.

Toronto Leafs won their first game in seven starts, defeating Chicago Black Hawks for the third time this season. It had been a 2-0 score on each occasion.

New York, Jan. 28.—Boston Bruins, second in the American group of the N.H.L., last night defeated the New York Rangers, group leaders, 2-1. The Bruins now have played eleven games without a defeat.

All the scoring came in the third period after the teams had battled on even terms through two periods. Eddie Shore, Boston defence star, broke the deadlock just fifty-two seconds after the start on an individual effort. Connie Weiland added a second goal five minutes later in the time from Galtner. Bill Cook made the Rangers' score.

The Boston Bruins' victory reduced the Rangers' record of leadership in the group to four points.

The line-up was as follows: Rangers—Roach, Abel, Bourget, Boucher, Bill Cook, Minto, Minto, Thompson, Keelling, Vail and Oatman.

Boston—Thompson, Hitchman, Shore, Carson, Oliver, Galtner, Weiland, Weiland, Rodden, Lane, Galtner and Owen.

Summary: First period—No score. Second period—No score. Third period—1, Boston, Shore, 52; 2, Boston, Weiland, 14:33; 3, Rangers, Bill Cook, 2:51.

Detroit, Jan. 28.—Outkated and outplayed in the two opening periods, Detroit Cougars lost an N.H.L. game to the league leading New York Americans last night, 2-1. The Americans played a stalling game, sending men up the ice just often enough to permit Reiser and Shepherd to score. Reiser's goal came early in the first period and his shot caught Dolson unprepared. The second American goal was somewhat of a fluke. During the game Dolson mistook the Cougar net guardian had mistaken the scream of a woman fan for the whistle.

The line-up was as follows: Americans—Worters, Reiser, Conacher, Burch, Connor, Broadbent, McVeigh, Simpson, Himes, Bouchard and Sheppard.

Detroit—Dolson, Noble, Brydges, Herberts, Connor, Cooper, Lewis, Aurio, Hay, Brophy and Traub.

Summary: First period—1, Americans, Reiser, 5:00. Second period—2, Americans, Sheppard, 16:30. Third period—3, Detroit, Lewis, 11:55.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—Montreal Canadiens strengthened their hold on second place and at the same time gained on the title New York Americans, leaders of the Canadian section of the National Hockey League, by defeating Ottawa, 2-1, here Saturday night in sixty minutes of fast and wide-open hockey. The Canucks outplayed the Senators in every period but the second. Six thousand attended.

Canadiens—Bainworth, B. Mantha, Bourke, Lapine, Joliat, Gagne, Carson, Leduc, Morenz, Mondou, Peterson and G. Mantha.

Ottawa—Connell, Boucher, Clancy,

Toronto Skater Smashes Three World's Marks

Toronto, Jan. 28.—Lella Brooks-Fotter, Toronto, shattered three world's skating records at a local speed skating meet Saturday, the half, three-quarters and mile marks falling before her flying skates. The world's champion made the mile in 3:23.4-5, the three-quarters in 2:31 and the half in 1:27.1-5.

SCHMELING TO BATTLE BAKER BOY

Likely Looking German Heavyweight Will Meet Risko at Garden Friday

Risko Appears to Be Slipping; Otto Von Porat Matched With Gagnon

New York, Jan. 28.—Heavyweights again hold the spotlight on the metropolitan district's boxing calendar this week. Max Schmeling, likely looking prospect, tangles with the Cleveland rubber man, Johnny Risko, in a ten-round fracas in Madison Square Garden on Friday night.

If they put up half as exciting a battle as did Jack Sharkey and K. O. Christian last week, the customers will go home well pleased.

Although in this country only a short time, Schmeling already has established himself as a possible contender for the heavyweight title. He has yet to meet a first-class heavyweight but his work against such battles as Joe Monte, Joe Sekyra and Pietro Corri has stamped him as one of the best prospects any foreign country has sent to the United States in some time.

He stopped Monte in eight rounds.

McDUFFY

By BARRIE PAYNE

Del Monte, Cal., Jan. 28.—California overwhelmed Oregon's six golfers, 7½ to 1½ in the annual inter-state team matches which ended at Pebble Beach yesterday.

Oregon entered the competition as the favorite, and no one expected California to win by such a large score. A year ago Oregon won by one point and last June at Lake Oswego Country Club, near Portland, the matches ended all square.

Most of California's representatives were going very nicely at Pebble Beach, and some of them registered truly phenomenal scores. The onslaught of eagles, birdies and pars was too much for the Oregonians. Pay Coleman, Johnny McHugh, Don Moe, and Chandler Egan were yesterday's outstanding stars.

Results were as follows: John J. McHugh, California, defeated Dr. O. F. Willing, Oregon, 6 and 5. Pay Coleman, California, defeated Frank Dolp, Oregon, 9 and 7.

Charles Seaver, California, and Don Moe, Oregon, halved the match and point, ending all square on the thirty-sixth.

Chandler Egan, Oregon, defeated George Ritchie, California, 5 and 7.

Dr. Paul Hunter, California, captain, defeated Rutledge Wilhelm, Oregon, captain, 4 and 3.

Jack Neville, California, defeated Russell Smith, Oregon, 3 and 1.

Egan won one of the Oregon points and Moe's pincky uphill battle added the other half point. On Saturday afternoon California won all three matches and points.

Victoria Capitals Will Oppose Crack Chinese Hoop Team

Exhibition Game at Victoria High School Gymnasium on Wednesday Night; Students From Universities of Southern China on Tour Costing $40,000; Will Play Twenty Games in the United States, Opening Tour Against University of California

En route to the United States to engage in one of the greatest tours ever undertaken by a basketball team the Chinese Basketball team, composed of students from the universities of Southern China, is in Victoria. The team arrived here aboard the steamship Empress of Russia and will remain here until Thursday afternoon.

Through the efforts of "Scotty" Dowds and the Chinese Canadian Club, who are entertaining the team during their visit here, a game has been arranged between the tourists and the Victoria Capitals, seniors champions of the city. The game will be staged at the Victoria High School gymnasium on Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Vancouver Island Basketball Association.

Victoria fans will be most fortunate in seeing the Chinese hoopers perform as Montreal will be the only other Canadian city in which the Chinese will play. They will proceed to Montreal after playing several games in New York City.

TRIP COSTS $40,000

The tour has been made possible through the backing of C. C. Lim, Chinese millionaire sportsman from Manila. The tour which will take three months to complete will cost approximately $40,000 and the entire expense are being borne personally by Mr. Lim. One of the main objects of the trip is to further cement the spirit of friendship between China and Canada and the United States. All proceeds from the games in which the Chinese team participate will be donated towards charity.

The team has been organized for about three years and during that time has won many victories over the crack teams of China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. While en route to Victoria the team stopped off at Kobe and defeated an all-star Japanese quintette by a score of 67-26. The students have also defeated the Japanese team from Waseda University, which toured the Pacific Coast two years ago.

The average age of the members is around twenty-two years while their average weight is about 146 pounds. However, what they lack in weight they make up in speed. There are thirteen players with the club besides Mr. Lim and a coach.

Upon leaving here Thursday the team will proceed to Los Angeles, where they will oppose the University of California in the first game of their United States tour. They will play twenty games in the States.

During their stay here the team is being entertained by the Victoria branch of the Chinese Canadian Club. Yesterday afternoon they were taken for a sightseeing trip around the city and last night were the guests of the various Chinese Benevolent Societies at a ball banquet at the Pekin restaurant.

Saturday night the students held a second hole of the games which was a direct bearing on the league standings. This will enable winners to be declared in time for the Provincial play-offs, and will provide a better brand of basketball for the fans.

The complete schedule leading up to the end of the season is as follows: January 31, Centennial Gymnasium: Senior "C" Men—James Island vs. Hudson's Bay Co.

Ladies "B" Fideles vs. Nuggets. Senior "C" Men—Fourex vs. Keatings.

February 4, Centennial Gymnasium: Senior "C" men—James Island vs. Fourex.

February 6, Y.M.C.A. Inter-departmental "A"—Victoria College vs. Crescents.

Ladies "B"—Red Birds vs. Fideles. Senior "B" Men—V.M.D. vs. Keatings.

Phil Edwards Wins Two Races On Same Night

New York, Jan. 28.—An hour or so after he had captured the 500-metre invitation at the Massasoit games in Manhattan Phil Edwards, Canadian Olympic middle distance runner from Brooklyn, A taxi took Edwards to the Engineers' Armory where the Massasoit games were held to the National Armory in Brooklyn where the Norwegian meet was held.

Edwards was given a hard battle of it in the 500-yard event by Oliver Fredrick of the Newark Athletic Club. Edwards' time was 1:14.1-5.

The more star's victory gave him his second for on the Old Hartwick trophy. In the 500 metres Edwards won in comparatively easy fashion, beating his team-mate, Fred Velt, by 18 yards. Harold Catlett, erstwhile "Flying Finn," was third. Edwards' time was 1:36.3-5.

MEHLHORN SETS NEW RECORD

Retains Texas Open Golf Title By Making Sensational Score of 277

Breaks Course Record With a 66; Horton Smith Winner of Second Money

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 28.—Wild Bill Mehlhorn, who won the Texas open golf title last year, clipped nine strokes from par on two rounds of the Brackenridge course here yesterday for a total of 277, to retain his crown. His score was the lowest ever recorded in the event and his first round yesterday morning, a 66, lowered the course record one stroke.

Mehlhorn, who started the tournament with a 5, improved steadily and with a 66, lowered the course record one stroke. He shot a 69, two strokes under par and on his final round yesterday he made a 67.

Other brilliant golfers shot consistently good scores but had no opportunity to head the Fenimore, N.Y., pro, Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo., turned in two 6's yesterday for a 281 and second place. Willard Hutchison, Pasadena, was a stroke behind him for third money and Frank Walsh of Appleton, Wis., was fourth with 24.

Danny Williams of Shackson, N.J., was fifth. Joe Kirkwood of Albany, Ga., and Al Watrous of Detroit, tied for sixth and seventh.

COLLECTS $1,500

Mehlhorn collected $1,500, the cap prize, and $25 for the low round yesterday. Smith won $800, Hutchison $500, Walsh $400 and Williams $300. Kirkwood and Watrous split $250.

The remaining money went to the next twenty-three pros, a 298 being the highest score that got in the money.

AMATEURS WELL UP

Two amateurs placed well up in the tournament. John Dwyer of Chicago, trying for tenth and Lewis Levison of San Antonio taking sixteenth.

Mehlhorn's gallery was treated to a whole aviary of birds. He started on the second hole of the day with a two, added another on the next hole, lost a stroke at the seventh, but regained it at the ninth, to turn two under.

On his afternoon round he bagged five birdies on the first nine, slipping a stroke over par on one hole, but had trouble at two holes on the way back, going over par on each of them. He got only one birdie to cancel his loss.

Mehlhorn was not the only player who shot in sixties yesterday. Al Espinosa of Chicago turned in two 6's. Willard Hutchison a 67, Harry Cooper of Buffalo and Billy Burke of Port Chester, N.Y., 68's, and Al Watrous a 69.

Record Crowds Are In Attendance At English Cup Games

Approximately 637,110 People Attend Sixteen Matches Saturday; Home Teams Had Great Day; Reading Spring Upset by Defeating The Wednesday; Everton, First Division Leaders, Humbled by Manchester City in League Game; Glasgow Rangers Maintain Winning Streak by Defeating Airdrie

London, Jan. 28.—Approximately 637,110 people attended the sixteen games in the fourth round of the English Football Association cup competition Saturday. London, with four ties, contributed 184,338 to the total. Ground records were broken at Huddersfield, where the United team from the neighborhood Yorkshire city of Leeds, were playing and Plymouth, who were visited by Bradford. The biggest gate of the day was at Stamford Bridge, where Chelsea eliminated Birmingham. The official figures for the gates in the matches were: Chelsea vs. Birmingham, 56,953. Liverpool vs. Bolton Wanderers, 55,055. Aston Villa vs. Clapton Orient, 55,000. Huddersfield Town vs. Leeds United, 53,700. Blackburn Rovers vs. Derby County, 45,410. West Ham United vs. Corinthians, 44,925.

Arsenal vs. Mansfield Town, 42,000; Manchester United vs. Bury, 40,588; Millwall vs. Crystal Palace, 40,460; Leicester City vs. Swansea, 40,000; West Bromwich Albion vs. Middlesbrough, 33,446; Plymouth Argyle vs. Bradford, 33,000; Burnley vs. Swindon, 30,696; Reading vs. The Wednesday, 29,248; Portsmouth vs. Bradford City, 23,305. The matches took place on the grounds of the first mentioned club.

HOME TEAMS WIN

It was a great day for the home teams, nine meeting success, four getting draws and only two tasting defeat. A number of the results were somewhat unexpected. While they were playing at home, the Phophets did not pick Reading to beat The Wednesday, but they did and not by a fluke, Blackburn Rovers, the cup holders, performing on their own grounds could only draw with Derby County so that the odds will be against them when they go to Derby for the replay. Aston Villa were conceded almost a walkover with Clapton Orient, but they could only draw.

CORINTHIANS BEATEN

The only amateur club left in the competition the Corinthians, were put out by the West Ham United. Chelsea, who were wearing the scalp of Everton on their belts, achieved a clean victory over Birmingham at Stamford Bridge.

Second division clubs are sure to be contenders for the trophy as six of them are definitely in the next round. The draw for the next round will be made and announced on Monday.

London, Jan. 28.—Everton, leading champions, were humbled in one of the two games played by English soccer league first division clubs Saturday. They were playing Manchester City at Manchester and were on the losing end of a 5-1 decision.

Cardiff and Sheffield United played to a scoreless draw, the match was the poorest kind of exhibition. The other First Division clubs were engaged in cup ties.

In Second Division games Tottenham Hotspur put a crimp in Notts County hopes of staging a comeback, beating them at White Hart Lane by 3-0, beating 35,000 people.

Bristol City and Blackpool gave a good account of themselves, Bristol, who were playing at home, being just good enough to win. Southampton made the long trip to Preston north end to win by the only goal score and Exeter delivered it in the second half on a penalty kick.

CAST A DAMPER

Northampton ran rings around Exeter City in a Third Division southern section match. Fulham cast a damper on the hopes of Queen's Park Rangers of getting to the top of the league by completely outplaying them in their five goals to nil. Stockport County did well to go to Lincoln City and win. Wrexham kept in the running for league honors by beating Ashington.

Glasgow, Scotland, Jan. 28.—Glasgow Rangers maintained their winning streak in Scottish First Division soccer matches Saturday, easily shaking off the challenge of Airdrie 2-0. Archibald and Cunningham were the Rangers' scorers.

Hearts, defeated by Airdrie in a cup fixture last week, were themselves again and beat Celtic 2-1. Carruthers hit the target twice for the Edinburgh club, while Scarffe scored for Celtic. The game was featureless with Hearts never in great danger.

The goals of White and Lindsay enabled Cowdenbeath to win from Partick Thistle, while Townrow's score put Dundee in the winning column against Hibernians.

After being two goals down with St. Mirren pulled up on even terms and got a draw with St. Johnstone.

Hitchcock's Team Wins Polo Match

Los Angeles, Jan. 28.—The Rancho San Carlos polo team, led by their top-goal star, Captain Tommy Hitchcock, took an easy 16 to 5 victory over the Midwick Purple four yesterday. The largest crowd of fans, 12,000, ever to witness a polo game, were packed the field. Alden Roark, English star on the Rancho team, topped his leader in point scoring, although Hitchcock, who took a hard spill in the fourth chukker, was credited with responsibility for most of his team's scoring.

the AFTER effects of FLU more dangerous than Flu itself

Physicians advise that the chief danger in this epidemic is AFTER influenza. Then, more than ever, colds attacking the weakened system may lead to bronchitis, or even the dread meningitis. This is especially true of children or old folks.

AT FIRST SIGN OF A COLD—Put some Vicks on each nostril and sniff well back. At bedtime, apply hot wet towels over throat and chest until the skin is thoroughly reddened. Then rub vigorously with Vicks. Spread it on thickly and cover with warm flannel.

Vicks acts 2 ways at once (absorbed and inhaled) and often checks a cold overnight. If by morning the cold still lingers, stay in bed and repeat the treatment every 4 hours.

AVOID TOO MUCH DOSING—A peculiarity of influenza is that its toxins leave the digestive system upset. Constant "dosing," especially in the case of children still further disturbs the digestion and lessens the appetite, just when the body needs nourishment more than ever.

Vicks Vaporub is especially valuable here because it is applied externally, and so can be used freely at the first sign of every cold, without upsetting the most delicate digestion.

DUSTY MILLER EASY WINNER

Scores Technical Knockout Over Peter Jackson in Seventh Round

Young Peter Jackson's seconds decided that their protegee had assimilated enough punishment and threw in the towel in the seventh round of his ten-round bout with Dusty Miller, local ace, at the Tillicum gymnasium Saturday night.

Both fighters started cautiously but Peter decided that he would hit Miller. He shot across a wicked left that would have knocked a house over, only it didn't hit anything and the first thing that he knew was that "Dusty" had been hit. Peter got the body blow that took a lot of pep out of him. That was the way it was for the first two or three rounds. Jackson would lead and Miller would retaliate with hard blows to the jaw and body. Miller was fighting carefully but along towards the fourth round he abandoned his crouch and practically hit "Young" Peter as he came in. Jackson tried hard but was not in the same class and took a bad beating until his seconds decided to stop the manilaughter and threw in the sponge. Both fighters weighed in at 180 pounds.

A SLUGFEST

In the semi-wind-up the fans were treated to a combination of scientific boxing and a real slugfest. Jack Watson, of Vancouver, was one of the prettiest boxers to be seen here in a long time, while his colored opponent Jimmy Beck, of Tacoma, was a crafty fighter. For the first two rounds Watson was content to keep his smaller opponent at arms reach and pile up points. This he managed to do for two rounds only and then Beck apparently got tired of hitting the empty air only, and came in close. This started things both boys trying to knock each other all over the ring, and the fans were on their feet for the remainder of the bout. The judges marked their cards for a draw.

Fighting at 135 pounds, Tim Keist and Eddie Mayo were promising the fans another battle full of action only the Victoria boy happened to hit Eddie too hard in the second round and he hit the canvas to stay there for a count of ten. It promised to be a good fight until then.

In the curtain raiser, Ted Beales was given the call over Emmanuel Lopez of Tacoma. They fought at catchweights.

JIM JEFFRIES

His Own Story

As Told to HUGH FULLERTON

CHAPTER XXIII

I SETTLE THE CORBETT QUESTION

From the time I knocked out in that twenty-third round at Coney Island the ex-champion had talked of another fight. I knew that he had lasted as long as he did on that occasion because he was in far better condition than I was, but he did not, or he pretended he did not, and clamored for a return engagement, claiming I had knocked him out with a lucky punch when he had me beaten.

Corbett's interviews never were tactful to say the least, and often I had the idea that Jim made his medicine talk to the newspaper men in order to get publicity. I had no idea that he ever would be able, at his age and after good condition as he was when he met me at Coney Island. I knew he had worked for an entire year, and gone through heavy training to get to the form he had then, and I was beginning to understand how much a long period of training takes out of a man physically, especially if he lapses and is careless about condition between training periods.

TO FIGHT CORBETT

I talked the matter over with Delaney. There were no other boxers in sight who wanted a match, and we believed another meeting between Corbett and me would draw a large attendance, regardless of its merit as a championship battle. We decided to accept his challenges and give him a fight and signed a contract to fight him on August 14, 1903 in Mechanics Pavilion, Jim Coffroth being the promoter.

While neither Delaney nor I took Corbett very seriously I was resolved not to be caught out of condition again, and we went to Harbin Springs three months in advance of the fight, planning to hunt and fish and live outdoors for a couple of months before actually starting the work of preparing for the fight. I decided that the outdoor life, the rough mountain climbing and long walks, would fix me physically and that it would be a mistake to start boxing early. I was discovering, even though I still was a young man, that it was hard to get the proper condition and easier to go stale than it had been. I took my brother Jack, Joe Kennedy, Billy Delaney and Joe Eagen with me, and made arrangements with Fitzsimmons for him to come to the camp for the finishing touches. Fitz was eager to come to the camp, for he hated Corbett and wanted me to knock him out in a punch if possible.

GOES HUNTING

During the early part of the training I spent most of the time hunting and fishing. The trout fishing in the mountain streams around the Springs is wonderful, and I thought that catching the elusive trout was about as good a way of preparing to fight Corbett as any, if he should choose to start running and sidestepping again when we got into the ring.

It was out of season for deer, but in spite of that I slipped out and killed several bucks. It is a queer thing the way human beings act at times. I always had been something of a crank about the game warden's law, and I had been especially about deer and antelope, and about killing more than the law allows. But while at Harbin I learned that one of the game warden's had offered $200 to anyone who would help him catch me killing deer out of season.

That news acted on me the way the prohibition law does on a lot of people. I thought, "If I can't get a license to kill a deer I won't learn this antagonistic warden was trying to catch me, and probably planning to hold me up if he did, but on discovery of my killing a deer, he would be watching me I resolved to kill deer."

On one occasion I had slipped out and circled round back of the mountains, stalking a buck. I had just seen the deer, looking down the side of the mountain, I saw a man or there or four hundred yards below me. It was my friend, the game warden, on his slinking expedition, and hearing the shot, he turned his horse and came up the mountain side towards me.

SOME QUICK THINKING

I thought he had trapped me, but did some quick thinking. About two hours earlier I had shot a fox and was carrying it over my shoulder, so as he came up, I dropped the fox, drew my hunting knife and went to work. He rode hard right at me, looking down and seemed disappointed.

"Oh! he said, 'you killed a fox, did you?'"

"Yes," I said without looking up. "I'm just skinning him."

The fox was still up, and I was afraid he might look over and find it had been dead for some time, but he did not. I finished skinning the fox, threw the carcass away, threw the skin on my saddle and started to ride away. The warden followed me all the way to Harbin Springs, about twelve miles, still suspicious, and he stayed around the hotel watching me until 11 o'clock that night.

Before going to bed I asked Mr. Hayes, the proprietor, to have me called as soon as the game warden left and, shortly before midnight, he gave it up and rode away. Hayes called me at midnight to tell me the warden had departed, so I saddled a horse, rode around the mountain, got the deer and brought him safely to the hotel before five in the morning, so we had venison for the camp.

The warden seemed to want to hold me up, or to get publicity by catching me violating the law, and I sent word to him that I would be willing to pay double the fine if he ever caught me, and that I knew the mountains better than he did.

SOME GREAT FUN

After Fitzsimmons reached the camp we had great fun with the grapt old warrior, who knew a little of hunting and fishing and was a good story teller. One day I took him twenty miles across the mountains to Cobb Mountain, for a deer hunt. We camped that night and Fitz kept picking because there were no deer.

I routed him out of his blankets before daybreak the next morning, took him up the mountain side and showed him on a trail where the deer were forced to go in crossing over a shoulder of the mountains. Then I took the dogs down over the mountain and started to drive the deer toward Fitz. We saw half a dozen deer, knew some of them must pass Fitz, yet we did not hear a shot and, about ten-thirty I said to one of the fellows:

"Let's go up. I think that old sucker is asleep."

We slipped up, and there lay Fitz, out the open under a broiling sun, snoring away peacefully. He had gone to sleep under the shade of a tree hours before, and the sun had moved until he was burned red. There were tracks all around him, and some of those deer must have jumped over him while he slept with his gun alongside him.

Fitz vowed he had only dozed off a moment before and that no deer had come near him, and when we showed him the tracks, he just sat down and laughed.

CANADA WINS TENNIS TITLE

Crocker and Rainville Cop Indoor Doubles Crown; Hall Is Singles Champion

Montreal, Jan. 28—Canada and the United States divided the Canadian indoor tennis titles Saturday. After J. Olibert Hall, Montclair, N.J., had won the singles crown by defeating Willard Crocker, Canadian ace, Crocker and Marcel Rainville of Montreal captured the doubles final from William Aydelotte and Merritt Outler of New York. The doubles scores were 7-5, 8-6, 6-3, 4-6, 4-4.

In the singles, Hall, the sensation of the tournament, downed Crocker in comparatively easy fashion, 3-6, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

Hall had advanced to the finals by virtue of an entirely unexpected victory in the semi-final round over George Lott of Chicago, the defending titleholder. Crocker gained the right to meet Hall in the finals by downing Fritz Mercier.

STEADIES DOWN

Apparently tired out by their strenuous fights in the semi-finals, neither Hall nor his Canadian rival displayed much spectacular tennis Saturday. After losing the first set, Hall steadied down to run through the next three in clean-cut fashion.

In the doubles, Crocker and Rainville staged a garrison finish to give the Dominion an even break in the award of titles. Trailing the New Yorkers, Aydelotte and Outler, two sets to one, the Canadians rallied to take the deuced fourth set by 8-6 and the deciding one as well, 6-4.

MYSTERY STORY ON TALKIE REEL AT THE DOMINION

“The Terror” Contains Thrills and Uncanniness For Patrons

While the stage has presented in the last five years more than a dozen mystery plays few have enjoyed such continuous success as “The Terror.” For three years Londoners have been intrigued by the baffling story, have shuddered one moment under the spell of the uncanniness only to laugh at their fears the next moment, and this mingling of the comedy element with mysterious has served to make the play one of the most interesting of all mystery dramas.

“The Terror,” which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre all this week, is the screen adaptation of this same play which fascinated London, but while the stage play contains enough thrills for the average person much of the mystery must be inferred because stage. ## ALL TALKIE

Rivalling in interest the story itself, however, at least for Victoria audiences is the fact that “The Terror” is the first all-dialogue film ever presented in this city. Not only are there no screen titles, but the entire story is told in spoken word by the actors as well as pictorially.

The cast includes May McAvoy, and Louise Fazenda, in the leading female roles.

Living up to his policy of providing the latest in screen and stage entertainment to the patrons of the Coliseum Theatre, George McEwan, manager, has brought to Victoria a clever band of eight players, who will present their first show in Victoria to-night, commencing at 8:30 o'clock, under the direction of Raymond “Toby” Leitch, who had a short engagement here some years ago, and who was immensely popular with the theatre public at that time. Since then, Mr. Leitch has been playing in all the larger cities of the Pacific Coast, from Los Angeles to Vancouver, and is known as one of the cleverest and most finished comedians.

“Peaches” Will Be Stage Attraction At the Playhouse

Fine Story of Military Academy Life Will Be Screen Offering For Entire Week

Known as one of the prettiest musical tabloids in the business the show, “Peaches,” will undoubtedly please patrons of the Playhouse Theatre this week. Tommy Parker, who brought his company to Victoria nine weeks ago, will handle the comedy role in his usual versatile manner. The plot of the show has to do with a romantic love story that is as fast moving as the race itself. Special song numbers have been prepared and the “Three Must-Get-Theres” will have another one of their popular harmony comedy numbers ready.

Fox Films comedy-drama of youth, “Prep and Pep,” will be the screen attraction at the Playhouse Theatre. This production of clean-cut humor was directed by David Butler and features two of the screen's most popular juveniles, David Rollins and Nancy Drenel.

It is the story of Cyril Reade (David Rollins), a bashful boy with a romantic manner who comes to Calvert Academy where he is expected to live

Ben Lyon and Antonio Moreno Have Leading Roles in Splendid Attraction

Herotism and adventure—romance and danger—perils of land and air—all these compressed into a gripping photoplay, with love and jealousy, cowardice and bravery battling for the mastery in tortured souls, will be the presentation to delight the audience at the Columbia Theatre to-night, when “The Air Legion,” F.B.O.'s powerful drama of the air mail service, will have its first showing here.

Three outstanding film players whose names have figured in scores of screen triumphs—Ben Lyon, Antonio Moreno and Martha Gleeper, dainty ingenue—have never appeared to better advantage than they do in the featured roles of this splendid production. And in addition to an appealing romance in which these three are the principals, “The Air Legion” brings to the screen a vivid and masterly depiction of the hazards, thrills and triumphs of that daring band of adventurers who fly the airmail planes.

NEW PLAYERS

The show to be presented this week is entitled “Toby on the Spot,” and will serve to introduce the members of the cast to their future friends and admirers. Miss Ade Daniels and Forrest Taylor, two of the most popular members of the Lee Jaxon Players, who were at the theatre until last week, have been kept on by Mr. McEwan, and they, together with their new comrades, will provide an evening's entertainment that is bound to please all who see it. Other members of the company besides those already mentioned include Paul Wallace, Leone Webber, who will be the leading lady, Esther Todd, William Ragley, and Frank Cuff, who has played the leading role of the Jew in the well-known and popular road-show success, “Abe's Irish Rose.” All the players have had widespread experience with stock companies on the Pacific Coast, and, before long, they are sure to be great favorites with Coliseum patrons in Victoria. The entire company has been taken on for an indefinite engagement.

GOOD COMBINATION

The combination of a good screen offering and a clever and entertaining stage attraction has proved its worth at the Coliseum Theatre during the last twenty-five weeks when the Lee Jaxon Players were there. Previous engagement calls them to Vancouver, but the management has decided that the same combination shall continue. The new company will give comedies interspersed with more serious turns, musical numbers and dances.

On the stage this week will be a picture, entitled “The Desert Bride,” featuring Betty Compson.

DUMB BELLS WILL SHOW HERE AT ROYAL SHORTLY

Clever Stage Troup Have Added Several Feminine Stars to Cast This Year

Al Plunkett, “Red” Newman and Other Still With Company

Captain Plunkett made no mistake when he took the daring step of adding nine to his already famous Dumb Bells Revue, “Why Worry?” which will be presented at the Royal Victoria Theatre on February 4, 5 and 6.

The remarkable showmanship that has kept “The Dumbbells” at the top for nine years is still in evidence in this latest production, for, while the chorus of dainty misses add materially to the charm and beauty of the presentation, it is the “old reliables” like Al Plunkett, “Red” Newman, Fred Emney, Harry Binns, Morley Plunkett, Cameron Geddes and Charlie Jeeves that carry on the traditions that have made this organization the most successful combination in the theatrical world to-day.

Jessie Butt and Aileen Parker, prima donnas and danseuse, respectively, are two notable additions to the acting, singing and dancing strength of the company. Cameron Geddes, another old favorite, is credited with the biggest song hit of the present season, a negro melody that will live for generations.

The musical act brings out the finest display of real music. Howard Page with his violin, Louis Crerar and Fred Emney in piano duets, the Dumbbells quartette, Plunkett Brothers' trio, Cameron Geddes and Harry Binns in solos, Fred Emney and Al Plunkett in sentimental fooling, and the male chorus singing “The Flag,” are head-lights of the most enjoyable half-hour ever dropped into the middle of a girl and music revue.

“Why Worry?” opened in Toronto, as usual, running concurrently with the National Exhibition, and the tour will follow the usual trail-blazed by The Dumbbells many years ago and followed each successive season.

Against the background of war-torn France, with flying aces mooring in the air overhead and the backwash of the world's most terrible conflict bringing panic to the peasantry, a little slip of a girl in simple frocks takes you to great emotional heights, brings a heart-throb here and a tear there, as you follow her through one of the greatest romances ever held.

ture starring Colleen Moore at the Capitol Theatre all this week.

"Lilac Time" is truly great, and Colleen Moore is brilliant in a role that rises to emotional heights.

As Jeannine, the little French girl who lives within hearing of the rumble of the great guns, who hides her tears behind a smile as her sweetheart goes away to almost certain death, Miss Moore demonstrates supreme artistry that establishes her as a consummate actress of dramatic strength and power.

"Lilac Time" is not a war story. Jeannine would have no part in a "war story," at least no major part. Rather, "Lilac Time" is a "heart story."

THE STAGE

On the stage at the Capitol Theatre the management is offering The Versailles Five, harpists de luxe, in a wonderful miniature concert. This great act which was accorded tremendous ovations in Vancouver and other important centres on the Pacific Coast, is one that is really well worth seeing and hearing. Jack Reed, the singing

SEA FESTIVAL OPENS VISTA OF FOLK MUSIC

Has Promoted Regard For Canada's Own Melodies

(By Times Special Representative)

Vancouver, Jan. 28.—In its first Winter musical festival, concluded on Saturday evening last, the deep sea port of Vancouver has been highly honored. The history of its picturesque Sea Music Festival has been written and sent forth to the four corners of the globe, and its citizens have warmly welcomed its advent.

Its sponsor, the transcontinental and large transportation company, the Canadian Pacific Railway, should receive the warmest appreciation and thanks of all Pacific Coast people. Hearty congratulations are due the company, and its festival managers, such as Musical "Pilot" John Murray Gibson and Musical Director Harold Gustave Key, who spared no pains in thoroughness, preparation and presentation for success. Their task, indeed, has been huge and important. Distinguished singers and instrumentalists from distant parts have taken part in its life of four days and four nights, together with choirs, orchestras, trapeze artists, and dancers, gathered from local talent lending their willing aid. A wealth of nationalistic and folk music, of folk dances, sea chanteys and sea songs, and a ballet opera, an operetta, some realistically presented plays proved a veritable feast of the festival. An outstanding feature of its many programmes was the engagement of the Farmers' Canadian String organization, the Hart House Quartette of Toronto, whose artistic and splendid performances elicited tremendous interest and delight. The presence, too, throughout the festival of such a celebrated musician as Dr. Healey William of Toronto, who conducted his own specially-written composition, was distinguishing and noteworthy.

The festival has been one of much value and significance. It has meant a great deal to music's art, and has opened vistas of early folk music, perhaps read about, but never before heard. It has introduced to the Coast international artists and works that have been written round and about the simple melodies of past centuries. It has been a means of promoting a nationalistic regard and feeling for Canada's own music, and has stimulated public interest in a sphere of missionary labor that in time to come will mark its effect on the Dominion's music of the future.

The festival concluded with two concerts, a matinee and an evening. In the afternoon, devoted particularly to young people, a children's choir of over 200 voices, excellently trained by Ethel M. Bassin, made an especial appeal, and the evening's proceedings, besides the appearance of the Scottish Orchestra of over thirty-five pieces, under Thomas Shantley, the Welsh Male Choir, conducted by Ifor Roberts of sixty-five voices, and the North Vancouver Choral Society, conducted by Dr. Frederick Rogers, Stanford's choral ballad, "The Revenge," was splendidly achieved, and under Dr. Rogers was rendered by the North Vancouver Choral Society of nearly 100 voices, Leonard Hagman and Glyndwyn Jones, soloists, and Scottish Orchestra.

Purse Muffs
New Paris muffs—little trinkets of fine fur and luxurious fabric—assume the importance of purses by having regular purse pockets inside that snap shut for safety.

Silver Balls
A Paris sports ensemble of grey jersey cardigan suit, with blouse in many shades of grey, is completed by an unusual necklace of silver balls, the size of cherries.

STRING QUARTETTE IS ACCLAIMED

Enthusiastic Audience Welcomes Hart House String Players; Fine Programme

Before an audience of nearly 300, whose numbers would have undoubtedly been larger but for the inclement weather, the Hart House String Quartette of Toronto on Saturday night demonstrated those qualities which have gained for it the title of foremost chamber music organization in Canada. And the claim is well deserved, for these artists of the strings sustained the highest standards of musicianship throughout a programme admirably chosen and admirably presented.

Geza de Kresz, violin; Harry Adaskin, violin; Milton Blackstone, viola, and Boris Hambourg, cello, comprise the personnel of the quartette. Individually each is a notable artist, well equipped and full of resource; in ensemble they show a smoothness in execution, a unity of spirit and a fine balance which speaks volumes for long and careful rehearsing. Their performance throughout was noteworthy for its intelligence and imagination, and it will be long time before Victoria has an opportunity of hearing their equal.

Their opening number, the Schubert Quartette in D Minor, known as "Death of the Maiden," because of its slow movement and gorgeous tone color. The two Hungarian Folk Song sketches from the Bartok-Kodaly collection, played with piquancy; Frank Bridge's "Londonderry Air," sprightly and appealing, and the suave, dignified, "A Sant Malo" (Ernest MacMillan), all were interpreted with sensitiveness and a brilliance which led the audience to clamor for more. Among the encores, the ever-popular "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," was invested with a

VICTORIA MAN IS PIONEER IN EYE TREATMENT

Was on First Examiners' Board Under Optometry Act

Andrew Blythe Is Inventor of Valuable Instrument

Optometry is a specialized profession devoted to the care of human vision. Until recent years the optometrist was known as an "optician," a name now applied to the purely mechanical worker.

With the great advance made in the knowledge of the human eye and the rise of educational institutions for the study of physiologic optics and every branch of science affecting human vision and the practical training afforded, together with the passing of legislation demanding high standards of efficiency in those entering the profession, the trained and experienced optometrist has reached a high stage of efficiency.

The time has passed when people are satisfied to submit their eyesight to the care of anyone who sells "specs" or to supply themselves from an assortment of ready-to-wear glasses. It is now found that glasses are necessary not only for the improvement of vision, but that they are the only remedy for the many ill effects arising from nerve depletion, for which the eyes are responsible—headache, nervousness and lack of concentration. Nor is this the whole story by any means, for the eyes have more to do with our general comfort, success and efficiency than is generally understood.

To A. P. Blythe of Government Street, whose long and honorable connection with this work, running back for over forty years, must be accorded much of the credit due for the advancement of the optometric profession in this Province by his active participation in the fight for legal recognition for optometry, which resulted in the passing of legislation requiring higher standards for those entering the profession. He was appointed by the Government on the first board of examiners created by the new Optometry Act.

SONS FOLLOW FATHER
Mr. Blythe has also the unusual and, it is believed, an unequalled distinction in that his four sons chose the same profession, all of them receiving their scientific training in the foremost optometric schools in America. Three of his sons survive. Allen, the eldest, died while serving in the United States Army during the Great War. Merrill is in Los Angeles conducting a successful practice there, and Irvine, the youngest, is about to graduate from the University of California. Andrew is associated with his father in Victoria. He graduated from the L.A. School of Optometry with honors in 1922, and passed the state of California board of examiners, receiving the highest marks given.

CAN NOW CURE SQUINT
Andrew Blythe has given much study to phorometry (ocular muscle balance) and the etiology and physiology of squint (crossed eyes), and its correction solely by optometric means. He is the inventor of an instrument which is constructed expressly for the correction of squint, and which, by the use of this instrument the abnormal causes of squint can be more easily broken up and the normal action of the functions of sight established. He invites parents to bring their squinting children and he will explain just what can be done. This new system of treatment has proved most successful. Eyes that have become practically blind through disease by squinting have had their sight restored and the eyes straightened and become entirely normal. Mr. Blythe affirms that this method is the only scientific, correct and rational way to deal with squint. It is only in those extreme cases of long standing where certain functions have ceased to exist through lack of use that the knife should be employed, and then only after a persistent application of this new method.

SCIENTIFIC EQUIPMENT
It is interesting to examine the various instruments of precision used in efficient optometry with which the Blythes carry on their work. Each instrument has its particular use in measuring and examining the functions of vision, testing the tonicity and relative powers of the ocular muscles, etc., and one feels that the operator who can skillfully, intelligently and deftly handle such equipment must know everything that can be known about the eyes of his patient.

WELL EQUIPPED LABORATORY HERE
In connection with this strictly professional work is the optical laboratory which is equipped for the manufacture of lenses, the more complicated of which are made here from the rough optical glass. It was in this laboratory that the invisible fused bifocal lenses, known as kryptoks, were first made in this Province, long before the whole world took up this work. All prescriptions are filled here. The running of the mechanical department in connection with the professional practice is in the interest of more economical and better service.

One other item of interest in the work of the optometrist is the prescription file. In a large scale in this Government Street office are to be found, filed away, thousands of prescription records dating away back to 1890, any one of which can be produced by a system of indexing on a moment's notice, so that the record of a patient's eyes can be traced back over a term of years. This is a feature which is often of much value in prescribing new glasses or advising the patient in the event of serious changes. Then duplications of glasses can always be made.

STOCK MARKET FINANCIAL NEWS GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)
Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 28.—Wheat: Another moderate reaction occurred in wheat to-day with prices mostly about half cent under the close on Saturday. There was nothing of feature going on, with part of the local pit trade liquidating and taking profits, but the offerings were largely absorbed by commission house buying on the dips for public account. The pressure was not heavy at any time, and trade volume was light.

There was a little buying at times which was credited to seaboard houses, but the volume was quite small.

The cash wheat market was also very slow, and there was no trace of any export business done over the week-end. Shippers reported that any bids that had been received were 1 1/2 cents under cost. There was a little inquiry for the higher grades at Pacific Coast, but no business reported as having been worked.

Millers were doing very little and reported flour demand poor in all directions.

WHITNEY LETTER

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)
New York, Jan. 28.—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says to-day:

"Continue to hold good stocks or buy them on the basis that they are headed for higher prices, that any decline is purely secondary to the main trend, and that next week in particular will bring forth a further substantial projection of the advance of last week. Such issues as Westinghouse Electric, General Motors, Radio, and particularly our old favorite Allied Chemical, are ready to assume leadership and show the rest of the list how to go higher.

"General Motors is not going to wait much longer for you to buy it within a point or so of the 85 level for the new stock, so complete your purchases before it gets too high to continue to do so until it sells at least ten points higher than present prices.

"American Sugar should be bought just as close to 95 as you can get it so that you will have in your list a stock which is about to pass out of the 90's and place itself in the company of those issues selling above 100.

"Vanadium's hesitation is providing us with an opportunity of buying it under 110 before it adds another 10 to 15 points to its price.

"National Power and Light and Universal Aviation on the curb has now developments pending, and in which higher prices are close at hand."

ing from North America, showing Canada what is going into distribution rapidly. Visible stocks in both countries are still large, much larger than a year ago, which naturally tempers bearish sentiment.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN PICTURES BY KNOCK

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

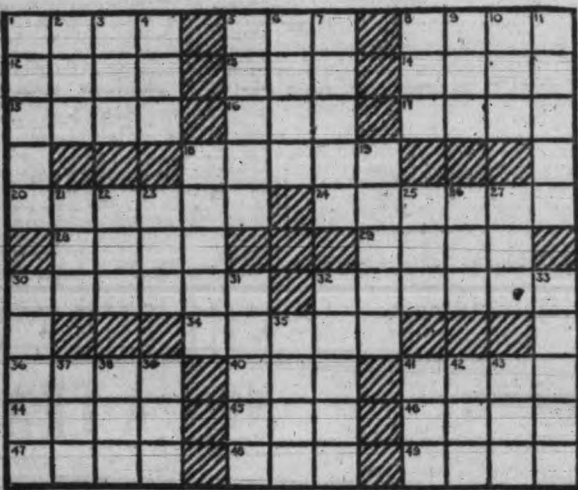

Said Clowny, "Look what you have done. You've made those Trouble Tots all run. I really think it's rather mean to scare them all away. They're small and couldn't hurt a thing. What sort of trouble could they bring? I'll bet they called to see us, and would gladly join in play."

The giant then said, "Me, oh my, do not think you'd care to try to play with all the Trouble Tots. They're bad as they can be. They always get into a mess. You'd understand it all, I guess, if you just knew the crazy tricks that they have played on me." "The giant's right," was Scouty cried. "It's better that they've run to hide. We've never seen those tots before, and we do not know of all the trouble they can cause. 'Tis always best to think and pause before you make new friends. I'm glad that we have let them go."

door and planned to have a meal once more. The giant and the Tines sat right down to quite a treat. When they were through they didn't lose much time, but promptly took a snooze. It's funny how it always makes you sleepy when you eat.

The Trouble Tots, of course, were mad. They thought about the scare they'd had and one of them exclaimed, "Let's go right back and play a trick. We'll nail the doors and windows tight. We'll keep those Tines out of sight." Another ran right up and said, "They're sleeping. Come, be quick!" They crept up real close to the house. Each one was quiet as a mouse. Their boards were held across the door, and across the window, too. Then one queer tot drove nails in fast. He shouted, "There, those boards will last." And then they all jumped up and ran because their task was through.
